

Volunteer for the protection of biodiversity

Organisation: Bee'n'Bee Association

Location: Zurich, Switzerland (with travel opportunities to various biodiversity hotspots in Switzerland)

Duration: 3 to 6 months (with possibility of extension)

About us:

The Bee'n'Bee association is a non-profit organisation dedicated to the protection, research and promotion of Switzerland's rich biodiversity. Our goal is to maintain the long-term health of our ecosystems through science-based, sustainable strategies. We are actively engaged in conservation, research, education and advocacy to have a positive impact on Switzerland's diverse flora and fauna. For example with the project "Vuebelle" where we copy an urban square 1:1 and recreate it as a biodiverse green twin square in the city of Zurich.

Role description:

Wir suchen leidenschaftliche, umweltbewusste Menschen, die sich uns als Freiwillige(r) anschließen möchten. Dies ist eine aussergewöhnliche Gelegenheit, einen direkten Beitrag zum Schutz der Artenvielfalt zu leisten und gleichzeitig mehr über die einzigartigen Ökosysteme der Schweiz zu erfahren.

Responsibilities:

Assist with biodiversity surveys and fieldwork in different regions of Switzerland.
Participate in the organisation of public awareness campaigns, workshops and educational programmes.
Support research work by collecting data, maintaining databases and producing reports.
Participate in habitat restoration and conservation projects.
Assist in maintaining partnerships with local communities, government agencies and other environmental organisations.

Qualifications:

Strong interest in biodiversity, conservation and environmental issues.
Ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
Strong organisational and communication skills.
Knowledge of German and English is desirable.
Previous experience in similar roles or field work is an advantage but not essential.

What we offer:

Training in biodiversity surveying techniques and conservation practices.
The opportunity to work with experts in the field of conservation.
The chance to contribute to meaningful and impactful projects.
An enriching experience in a diverse and inclusive environment.
A certificate of volunteering upon successful completion of the activity

How to apply:

Interested candidates are asked to send a CV and a short letter explaining your interest in the position to our email address:

Bee'n'Bee is an equal opportunities organisation. We value diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all volunteers.

Please note that this is an unpaid volunteer service. However, associated costs, such as travel expenses for fieldwork, are covered by the organisation.

Don't miss this opportunity to contribute to the conservation of Switzerland's remarkable biodiversity.
